

RESOLUTION.

Whereas, for several years last past, there has existed in Saline county, Nebraska, a state of social and political strife, due to the controversy about the location and building of the county court house, and

Whereas, such strife has been, and a continuation thereof will be a detriment to the social, political and economical advancement of said county, and

Whereas, the citizens of the City of Crete, contestant for the location of said court house, in mass meeting assembled have expressed a willingness to forego, in deference to advancement of the general welfare of the entire county, all further effort to secure a re-location of said court house, and

Whereas, it is the sense of this meeting, consisting of voters and tax-payers of every precinct in said county who were active participants on both sides of said court house re-location controversy, that harmony and good will should be speedily promoted between the citizens of all the towns and precincts of said county, and

Whereas, it appears that a large majority of the citizens and taxpayers of said county desire a settlement of said controversy, and

Whereas, the present court house is in need of extensive repairs, and is devoid of all modern conveniences for its officers and jurors and other citizens of said county, and

Whereas, there is at this time the sum of approximately $110,000.00 in a special fund for the construction of a new court house, and investigation by various interested citizens has disclosed that a new court house suitable for all the needs of said county will cost the sum of approximately $210,000.00, and

Whereas, the voting of bonds is the most expedient way to raise the necessary additional funds for the construction of such court house,

Now, Therefore, be it resolved, by the taxpayers, voters and citizens of Saline county, Nebraska, here assembled, that the county be respectfully petitioned to call a special election forthwith for the purpose of voting bonds in the amount of $100,000.00 for the construction, with the funds now on hand, of a new court house for said county, at Wilber, the present county seat thereof, and

Be it further resolved, That, if said bonds be carried, steps be taken immediately for the construction of such new court house, and

Be it further resolved, That all present at this meeting shall unite in promulgating good will and harmony among all the inhabitants of Saline county, Nebraska, and in the advancement of the best social, political and economical interests of said county, and

Be it further resolved,, That a copy of these resolutions be filed forthwith with the honorable board of county commissioners of Saline county, Nebraska, and that copies hereof be submitted to the newspapers of said county for publication.
